

- Provide quality facilities and natural amenities that support a variety of passive and active activities
- Create safe and innovative public spaces for community enjoyment and interaction
- Invest in and preserve natural environment for future generations
- Provide venues for artistic expression and enjoyment
- Increase awareness about and provide opportunities to interact with natural environment
- Highlight inherent cultural qualities of a public space or site
- Maintain facilities to ensure a clean, safe and high quality experience for all
- Provide community centers and outlets for kids and adults to enjoy recreation and leisure activities within their neighborhoods, as well as throughout the community
- Provide safe havens for community youth
- Acquire and preserve open space to ensure long-term beauty and a unique community

- Help people develop skills so they can be successful in their lives and the community is strengthened
- Connect people with community and educational resources
- Provide information and assistance
- Identify and address gaps in services
- Assist people in meeting their basic needs
- Help people navigate the service delivery system
- Provide prevention and early intervention services to address issues and risk factors before they develop into more significant human problems
- Empower people in their own individual development
- Consider whole person and family system interventions
- Lack of income does not mean lack of choices
- Ensure opportunities for ongoing job skill development and re-training
- Remove barriers so people can easily access resource and services
- Provide direct and indirect support for non-profit organizations

- Provide opportunities for cross-cultural awareness, celebration, exchange and understanding
- Ensure that City services and interactions are culturally competent
- Ensure that all community members have equal access to information, resources and services
- Create opportunities for all to feel included and welcomed in the community
- Create opportunities for people to work together and build relationships with one another
- Ensures that all voices are heard and interests considered

- Help people work, play and live to their fullest
- Provide environments where positive behaviors can replace negative behaviors
- Ensure that programs are available to all ages, incomes, cultures and abilities
- Promote health and wellness
- Help people meet their social and emotional needs
- Provide opportunities for creative expression
- Provide opportunities that promote increased physical activity and healthy choices
- Promote individual development and teamwork
- Provide opportunities for people to experience arts and culture

- Strengthen sense of community and belonging
- Ensure equal access to services, information and resources
- Create opportunities for volunteerism and hands-on engagement
- Create opportunities for individual and community capacity-building
- Promote community leadership and empowerment
- Strengthen civic identity and pride
- Connect people of all ages, abilities, socioeconomic status and cultures with the community and each other
- Build and sustain partnerships with all segments of the community
- Preserve and interpret our heritage, cultural and community assets for future generations
- Provide opportunities for involvement in all aspects of government
- Promote open and authentic two-way communication
- Empower people to resolve issues with one another
- Embrace the idea that a community is more than its infrastructure

- Provide a variety of education resources and opportunities for lifelong learners in a meaningful, relevant, competent, and accessible manner
- Provide informal learning opportunities
- Connect people with resources and information that support formal education
- Ensure equal access to information technology
- Promote opportunities that facilitate inquiry, curiosity, awareness and self-expression
- Promote appreciation of natural resources
- Preserve our history for future generations
- Promote literacy
- Help people of all ages to acquire education, experiences and skills to be successful throughout their entire lives
- Provide early childhood education experiences so that all children are ready to learn when they enter school
- Broaden views of the outside world for better understanding
- Create partnerships with formal and informal education providers