Contest Rules (for all divisions):

1. Any architectural structure - real or imaginary - is eligible for entry (i.e. house, train station, bridge, ship, lighthouse, spaceship). Entry must be original - kits are allowed but top prizes will be awarded to structures that are most creative and innovative.
2. Your entry must have major components (such as walls and roofs) constructed of gingerbread or other edible material.
3. You may add electric lighting to your entry but the lights must be battery-operated. No electrical outlets will be available during display.
4. Your entry must have been constructed in 2009.
5. Entries will be judged on Originality, Overall Appearance, Choice and Use of Materials and Difficulty of Design.
6. Entries must be delivered in completed form, attached to an 18" X 18" or 18" X 24" plywood or STURDY base enabling it to be freestanding. Entries may not be taller than 26" H. Bases must be completely concealed with an edible product or foil.
7. Participants must register for the competition by November 30, 2009. Additional entry forms may be obtained by calling 303-651-8404 or online at http://www.ci.longmont.co.us/rec/special/longmont\_lights.htm. A registration fee of $5 is due for each entry at the time of registration.
8. All entries must be delivered to the Longmont Senior Center, 910 Longs Peak Ave., during the hours of 9:30 a.m. -4:30 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 4, 2009.
9. The City of Longmont Recreation Services and the Radisson Hotel reserves the right to not display an entry for any reason.
10. Winning entries will be on public display at Downtown Longmont locations until mid-December. If you don't want your entry displayed, you must pick it up at 11 a.m. on Dec. 5 after the judging. The City of Longmont assumes no responsibility if your entry is damaged during the contest period.
