

Father Daughter 1940's Dinner Dance

Date: August 29, 2009
Time: 6:00-9:00pm
Place: Longmont Senior Center,
910 Longs Peak Ave

The 1940's are mostly known for World War II, but this was also the time when Slinkies were created, Victory Gardens were grown, necessities were rationed and a new era of dancing began!

Come and swing to some Dizzy Gillespie, try the Lindy Hop, and enjoy the music from 40's artists like the Glenn Miller Band and Artie Shaw, as well as your favorites from today!!

This event is for fathers (or the male who holds a special place in a girl's heart) and daughters of any age. The fee includes dinner, corsage, pictures, dancing and more!!!

This will be a memory you won't want to miss!

$50.00 father and daughter
$25.00 for additional daughter
Offered through
Longmont Recreation Services

